9. Tutor Cameron

Cameron Watson

PhD, UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

PERSONAL PROFILE

Currently studying PhD Computer Science and working on MSc in Data Science. Strong background in Data Science, machine learning, statistical modelling, and applied AI. Experienced in Python, cloud solutions, and data engineering workflows.

QUALIFICATIONS OVERVIEW

- ★ PhD Computer Science, University of Cambridge (in progress)
- ★ First Class Honours in the Degree of Computer Science
- ★ Experienced in Software Engineering, Programming, Mathematics, AI and Data Science

SPECIALIST AREAS

Computer Science

Data Science

Mathematics

Data Engineering

KEY ACHIEVEMENTS

- ★ Commended in Python, JavaScript, Java, C#, C++, SQL, R, Perl, Scala, Pure Data, Max/MSP, Processing, TensorFlow, Machine Learning, Deep Learning, NLP, AI, Reinforcement Learning, Cloud Architecture, and Software Design

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

PhD, Computer Science
University of Cambridge | 2024- present

Modules of interest:

- Functional and Imperative Programming
- Databases and Computer Security
- Algorithms and Data Structures
- Machine Learning and Compilers
- Digital Systems
- Artificial Intelligence

MSc, Data Science
University of Durham | 2023 - 2024

Areas of interest:

- Statistical Methods
- Data science
- Computational methods

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Academic Consultant
Freelance | 2021 - present

- GCSE and A Level tuition
- Computer Science
- Mathematics
- Physics
- Personal statement support
- OS university admissions
- Admissions test guidance (MAT and TMUA for CS applicants)
- Interview preparation (STEM and Computer Science)

STUDENT SUCCESS STORY

I worked with a student preparing for the Oxford Computer Science application. By focusing on data-driven approaches to solve real-world problems, algorithmic thinking, and problem-solving strategies, they grew in confidence and performed strongly in the test, securing an offer at their first-choice college.

10. Tutor Wei

Wei Bin

MEng Civil and Environmental Engineering
Imperial College London

PERSONAL PROFILE

Wei Bin is an energetic fellow who specialises in Data Science and Artificial Intelligence, having won a King's bursar from Imperial College London.

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

MEng, Civil & Environmental Engineering
Imperial College London

Areas of expertise:

- AI, Machine Learning, Deep Learning, and Reinforcement Learning
- Python
- AI Chatbots
- Data Science and AI: Proficient in Python (Pandas, TensorFlow, MLflow, FastAPI, Flask, socket.io), SQL, Apache Airflow
- Software development: Proficient in git, HTML, CSS, JavaScript (ReactJS, VueJS), Microservices in Swift, C#, C++
- Areas of interest:
 - Algorithmic Trading
 - Mechanical Engineering
 - Electrical Engineering
 - Environmental and Civil Engineering
 - Financial analysis

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- GCSE and A Level tuition for Physics, Maths, and Further Maths
- Data Science, AI and Machine Learning
- Personal Statement guidance
- Job applications and job interview preparation
- Job numerical and reasoning tests

STUDENT SUCCESS STORY

Wei Bin delivers structured, real-world instruction in AI, data science, finance, and web development, empowering learners from beginners to professionals. With industry experience and a passion for teaching, he supports career transitions, corporate training, and youth education. His practical approach helps students apply technical skills to solve real-world problems, drive innovation, and achieve academic and professional success. Wei Bin's extensive background in coding to solve engineering problems is highly appreciated by his students and he enjoys helping others develop their passions.

- ★ MEng from Imperial College London
- ★ First in Data Science and Artificial Intelligence
- ★ Certified CFA Level 2

SUBJECTS TAUGHT
